Drowning Only Fatality In Will Co. Over Holiday

Will county went thru another holiday without a traffic fatality but there was a drowning in the Kankakee river near the western limits of Wilmington to mar the safety record for the long Labor Day week-end.

As matter of fact Joliet district of the state police (Dist. 5) which is made up several counties, including Will, was without a fatal traffic crash over the Labor Day.

As of Tuesday forenoon the number of persons killed in traffic accidents between Friday and Monday nights was around the 380 mark. Predictions of the National Safety Council had placed the traffic toll at 420.

It is probable that when all the reports are in covering the week-end period the number of dead will be around 400 but that will still be under the predicted total and no one is more pleased that the National Safety Council whose figures are in error—on the right side, a spokesman pointed out.

State police in Illinois were out in full force over the week-end and were under orders to arrest all motorists for violation of any moving traffic regulation.

District 5 was fortunate in that motorists using the state roads were driving sanely and safely—safely anyway—and not a fatality was reported.

The drowning near Wilmington was the result of a mishap while fishing. Kenneth Bono, 27, of Braidwood, and a companion were fishing the river near the Soldiers and Sailors Widows home. They had waded out into the stream, casting as they moved.

Bono was wearing hipboots and when he stepped into a deep hole the waders filled and he lost balance and fell. The weight apparently was too much and he drowned. The body was recovered several hours later by the rescue squad of the Wilmington volunteer fire department.

New Lenox Explosion Victims File Suit For $1-Million

(CNS) Five New Lenox residents filed suit in Circuit Court Thursday for a total of $1 million in damages against two firms they claim were responsible for a gas explosion in their apartment building last Nov. 6.

The suit was filed by Jack and Anna Droney, Mary Hauser, and Francis and Harry Levitus, of 221 Ash St., New Lenox, against the Northern Illinois Gas Co. and Normoyle and Berg Co., a construction firm which was building a sewer in New Lenox last November.

Both firms owed it to the plaintiffs to take all necessary means and precautions to see that no gas lines were broken or damaged during the excavation, the suit said.

Yet they "willfully, maliciously, carelessly, negligently and recklessly conducted their business" so as to permit gas to escape and build up, finally resulting in an explosion at 211 Ash, the suit said.

The defendants were negligent in failing to conduct reasonable inspections and pressure tests of the gas line system, in breaking some lines or pipes and in failing to discover it, the suit charges. As a result, all of the plaintiffs were injured, they said.

Each plaintiff is asking $100,000 from each defendant.

The explosion practically wrecked the home. The house was partly twisted off its foundation and some of the interior was left a shamble.

Band Boosters Of L-W Plan Benefit Hop

A special meeting of the Lincoln-Way Band Boosters is to be held next Wednesday night, Sept. 13, at the high school, to discuss plans for the dance to be given Sept. 30.

The dance is scheduled to be held in the school gymnasium and Bill Carnegie's orchestra of Joliet will furnish the music. The affair is open to the public. Proceeds from the affair will be used to aid the band.

Welsch Lumber Co. Plans Open House Sept. 16, 23

A special open house that is to begin Sept. 16 and run thru Sept. 23, is planned by the Welsch Lumber Co., of Mokena to give the public an opportunity to view the fruits of the remodeling program that had its start in 1960 when the firm embarked on the Cashway system of merchandising building supplies.

A new building was erected at the east end of the property to give storage room for lumber. This was necessary because the company had other plans for the structure that served as a driveway, garage and lumber shed just to the north of the office.

That building had space for eight carloads of lumber so before the remodeling of the front area began the new storage shed had to be built. Incidentally that shed, which is of metal, has room for a lot more than eight carloads of lumber.

The work in the front area began shortly after the first of the current year. The exterior of the building was not added to but it did undergo a face lifting job that is very effective. Board and batten siding, of redwood covers a portion of the front and extends along the side that runs along McGovney street.

That section which housed the office is all glass and white woodwork with a canopy above a concrete porch to which broad steps give access. Planters, faced with stone, extend on either side of the steps for the length of the porch. They will be planted with evergreens.

The interior is brightly illuminated and on peg boards, racks and display cases is a wide selection of builders and homeowners supplies. The firm carries an exceptionally large stock of hand tools; there are also yard tools, paints, aluminum doors, screens and storm sash; building hardware and many other items.

In the section that was formerly lumber shed and driveway are displayed plywood, paneling, floor tile, rough hardware, fiberglass, doors and other things calculated to make homes better and add to their convenience, it was pointed out. There is a balcony on which some of the items are displayed.

Reduced to figures Welsch Lumber has 33,000 square feet of display and storage area under a single roof. It serves Mokena and surrounding communities within a 40-mile radius. More than 100 years of experience in building, contracting and designing are represented by the people at Welsch Lumber.

The firm was organized in 1950 by Walter Welsch Elias Brown and had its beginning on Mokena street at McGovney, in what was then Hatch hall, now occupied by the David Noble store. In 1951 the lumber firm moved to its present location. Also affiliated with the company is William Welsch, son Walter Welsch.

Add $210 To Library Treasury

At the recent Frankfort sauerkraut day celebration proceeds totaling $210 were received by the local library group from various concessions. The money is to be added to their treasury to help finance the remodeling of the second floor of the village hall to serve as the public library.

To further the building fund a benefit dance will be given at the local grade school on Saturday evening, Sept. 30. More details will be announced at a later date.

Sign Contract For School Addition At Frankfort

The Frankfort grade school board met Tuesday night to clear the way so work can be started on the new addition to the school plant.

The board signed a contract with Baumgartner & Co., of Frankfort, whose bid on the job was the lowest of 10 submitted, and also adopted a resolution providing for the issuance of bonds to defray the cost of the improvement.

The district was authorized to sell $145,000 of bonds at a special referendum held this summer. Baumgartner & Co.'s bid was $120,197. The architect pointed out that in all likelihood the final payment figure would be higher because of the extras—without which, it seems, nothing is ever built.

But allowing to possible extras and other contingencies, plus the fees for architect and attorney is expected to still leave the district with a surplus of cash so it will not be necessary to sell all of the bonds. Should some unforeseen situation arise that would necessitate use of all the money the board could simply sell the rest of the bonds. The bonds have been purchased by the Frankfort State Bank.

Work is to be started as soon as possible and the board is planning on completion in time for the opening of the 1962-63 school year.

There are to be four classrooms built, a multi-purpose room that can be converted to at least two classrooms, an office and there is to be some work in the present building. The washrooms are to be rejuvenated, according to the contract.

BEG PARDON!

(Editor's Note: We wish to offer our sincere apologies to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gallagher and their daughter, Miss Dawn Gallagher for the story carried in this column last week announcing that Miss Gallagher had been married. This was completely in error, a hoax perpetrated by some malicious person.

The information concerning the alleged wedding was telephoned to our correspondent. She said the voice of the caller was that of a mature person, and identified herself as Mrs. Gallagher.

After the story appeared the facts came to light. Mrs. Gallagher, properly incensed, stated that she had made no such call, nor had anyone made such a call from the Gallagher household, and most certainly Dawn had not been married nor probably would be for some years yet, being only 14 years old.

We are very sorry it happened. We also wish to go on record that we resent having been used in this fashion and that if investigation reveals the identity of the perpetrator of this hoax and proper action will be taken.)

Longer Trucks Make For Shorter Tempers

Governor Koerner signed two bills about 10 days ago that are of considerable benefit to the trucking industry but the measures aren't expected to make the motoring public give three rousing cheers.

The trucking trade appreciates the legislation because it allows them to operate longer trucks. This means a larger payload and more money for the haulers. That the additional weight may do greater damage to the highways and cause more inconvenience to motorists is nothing to cause the trucks to lose sleep.

One bill permits a semi-trailer to have an overall length of 55 feet (it had been 50 feet under the old law) and an auto transport rig to have a length of 60 feet and an overhang (it was 55 feet). The average length of a single-door railway boxcar is 40 feet; the double-door type is 50 feet, so the new trucking rigs will be larger than railroad freight cars.

So far the truckers have not succeeded in getting approval of an increase in width of the vehicles they operate but give them time and a compliant legislature and the trucks will have to go down the middle of a two-lane highway in order to fit on the road.

One frequently encounters two, three and four semi-trailers tail-gating along U. S. 30 (to keep it local) which makes it difficult for other vehicles traveling in the same direction to pass. With the new lengths the practice of tail-gating will mean that the trucks own the road.

Present lengths of semi-trailers and auto transports pose a real problem in towns and cities where such vehicles have to negotiate corners. They are so long that they have to be taken over on the wrong side of the street and pretty well block an intersection in turning a corner. Another five feet of length will necessitate a still greater swing and this can be quite wearing on the truck pilots. It can be quite wearing on car drivers too but no one cares about them.

We have noted on several occasions that truck drivers maneuvering a vehicle around a corner become rather provoked with car drivers who get in their way. The car drivers are traveling within their own lanes or are halted, within their proper lanes, waiting for a light to change when the trucks start the swing. That is when we have seen the truck drivers become irate. They have to get over on the other side of the street and other motorists have the effrontery to be using it. Sometimes the truckers say rather sharp things and want the car drivers to back up or pull up on the sidewalk.

The solution for this would be to channel passenger cars thru the alleys and turn the streets over to the trucks.

If the public doesn't already know it, it should realize by this time that the highways are really built for the truckers and use by passenger car drivers is purely coincidental altho the bulk of the cost for such highways is borne by the passenger car owners.

We think it is time that some serious thought be given to the proposal that the trucking industry be required to provide its own highways at its own expense. The railroads have to build and maintain tracks and then pay heavy taxes on same. We don't see why the public has to foot the bill for the trucking trade.

By GLENN F. LOGAN
It is later than you think. Whether you like it or not, for all practical purposes summer has ended and fall begun. The calendar doesn't say so, nor does the thermometer but just the same autumn is here. When Labor Day arrives autumn slips in thru the back door. With the schools re-opened vacation time is over for most families, altho if they are truthful a lot of mothers will admit that they are just beginning theirs. Freedom from a passel of kids underfoot, with their insistent demands an assault on the ears from morning until night, should be a wonderful vacation for many mothers.

There are many things of summer that carry over into fall—baseball, swimming, golf, grass cutting and picnics, to name a few. Straw hats are out, however. The wearing of straw skimmers begins on Memorial Day and ends on Labor Day, according to the dictates of fashion as laid down for these latitudes.

It is possible that this convention has been shelved or repealed. Spring usually is so cold and inclement that one feels like an odd-ball to don a straw hat much before the Fourth of July and September usually is so hot that one feels it only proper to wear something that was designed for warm weather. And that is a goofy idea too.

Why anyone should think that a head covered by a closely woven straw is any cooler, than a hat made of cloth or felt is something that should be charged to custom and psychology.

Come to think about one doesn't see too many straw hats any more. As a matter of fact this look-ma-no-hands stuff turned into look-ma-no-hat quite a few years ago and the hat makers have been hurting since. Some companies have folded up and others have merged with or been absorbed by the more solvent firms and they are in there fighting the good fight. They have a ray of hope.

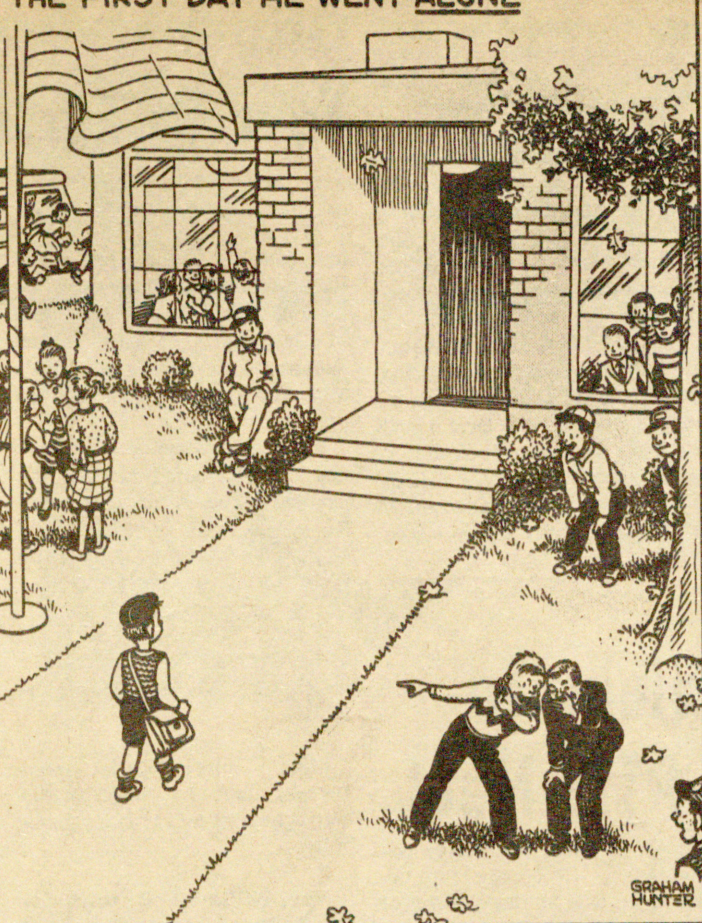

The American male is expected to become a hat-bearing animal again in time. Only a few years ago they kept their nogginns as bare as a chorus girl's knee but now they have gone to baseball caps in the summer. Even saw a baseball cap at a wake last week — it was worn by a woman.

One can see why the hat companies see light ahead — if American males get in the habit of wearing baseball caps in the summer there is a good possibility they can be persuaded to take up hats.

Summer sports are still going strong but it is only a few weeks until the World Series and football will be competing against baseball for space on the sports pages of city dailies. Bowling leagues start their season grind this month and basketball will be in our midst before we realize time has slipped by.

HOMETOWN AMERICA

THE FIRST DAY HE WENT ALONE —

Lack of rain and high temperatures have combined to turn lawns brown except where residents have cried "hang the expense" and have had sprinklers going day and night. Admittedly, brown lawns are least likely to win a prize in a beauties-of-nature contest but they have their good points. They serve as an excellent excuse for not cutting the grass. And after months of cutting grass one is entitled to any extra respite he—or she as the case may be—can wangle before winter arrives and one has to take up the snow shovel. If an autumn is mild and moist one has no rest. He keeps cutting grass until suddenly it is winter and that white stuff blankets lawns—and sidewalks.

It is possible that when William Cullen Bryant wrote "the melancholy days are come" he had to cut grass and shovel snow in the same week.

Or maybe it was because he had to lock up his summer cottage, put his boat away for the winter and get in his fuel supply. Despite Mr. Bryant and thots of winter, autumn is a beautiful season. But before we really get into it there is September to contend with and too often September is a purgatorial sort of month. Sometimes it is even hotter.

Hints For Homeowners

By: James Fizzell, Ass't. Farm Adviser

Chrysanthemums have long been the favorite fall flower. With scientific advances in the growing of these flowers, the season has been lengthened until now these useful blooms are available fresh, every day of the year.

Chrysanthemums originally grew wild in Asia and were quite similar to our common daisy. The Japanese, through their skillful breeding, developed the flower to the point where it was many times as large as its wild ancestor, and it is now the national flower of Japan.

European visitors to Japan were fascinated by the large, showy flowers and carried plants back to Europe from whence they finally were imported to the U.S.

The chrysanthemum has been bred extensively in this country, and most of the important commercial varieties are results of the work of the breeders.

Our own University of Illinois is one of the foremost developers of chrysanthemums in the United States. Many varieties are introduced by the Floriculture Division of the College of Agriculture each year, each bearing the trademark, Illini somewhere in the name. Illini Snowdrift is a delicate little variety known all over the United States as well as abroad.

There are many types of chrysanthemums on the market, and at least one is suited for almost any use. The large "Football Mums" called "standards" in the trade are used extensively in arrangements. Closely allied to the Football Mums are other large disbud with decorative, informal shapes and the exotic spider-like Fuji Mums. The small, spray type chrysanthemums are called pompons. These work well in small arrangements and are extensively used in corsages. It is the pompon which because of its long cut-flower life is used on New Year's Day to cover the beautiful floats in the many parades throughout the country.

Chrysanthemums are one of our best flower buys. The flowers are adapted to almost any use, and in addition, chrysanthemums are the longest-lived of all our cut flowers.

With proper care, a Chrysanthemum arrangement will last several weeks in the home. Chrysanthemums are in good supply now at your neighborhood florist. Use flowers, they are the sign of a friendly, hospitable home.

THE LAW

Auto liability insurance: The plight of the person injured in an automobile accident, when both he and the owner or operator of the car involved are unable to pay the resulting medical bills and his loss of earnings, presents a major problem to our society.

Many car owners carry automobile liability insurance to protect themselves and persons whom they may injure. In deciding whether to purchase automobile liability insurance, a thoughtful driver may ask himself: Am I required by law in Illinois to carry liability insurance on my automobile? Can my driver's license be suspended or revoked if I do not have such insurance? Can I be fined or put in jail if I do not?

The answers to these questions, and some helpful information for all drivers in Illinois, are found in the "Safety Responsibility Law" passed by the Illinois Legislature in 1951. The provisions of that law concern us all, driver, passenger and pedestrian alike.

Report of accident: Each time an automobile accident occurs in Illinois in which someone is injured or killed, or which results in property damage of $100 or more, Illinois law requires the drivers of the vehicles involved to send a detailed written report of the accident to the State Department of Public Works & Buildings, within 10 days after the accident. The report is kept confidential. It is made on forms supplied by the police, and failure to make it may result in suspension of the license of the driver or owner of the car involved. When such a report is submitted, the Safety Responsibility Law goes into operation.

Minimum insurance required: Upon receipt of the report, the department is required to make an immediate investigation to determine whether the owners or drivers of the cars involved in the accident have automobile liability insurance to protect the injured person or property. If they have such insurance in effect, no further action is taken by the department. To qualify, the insurance must be written by an authorized company, and must provide indemnity of at least $10,000 to any person who may be injured or killed, at least $20,000 in case two or more persons are injured or killed, and at least $5,000 for damage to property. Suspension of license: Failure to carry such insurance is not a crime. But if the owner or driver does not have the requisite insurance in effect, the department forwards his name to the secretary of state together with an estimate of the amount of claims which may be asserted against him for the injury resulting from the accident. Upon receiving this information the secretary of state is required to send notice to the named person that he must deposit security in a specified amount within a certain period of time.

The Upper Room

I am not ashamed of the gospel: It is the power of God for salvation to every one who has faith, (Romans 1:16, RSV.) On one of my preaching errands, a Muslim asked me to tell about the transforming power of Jesus Christ. I gave him the following reply, based on personal experience of Christ's saving power.

The moment a man believes in Christ, his duty lies in the direction of the individuals around him and in the business of life. The battle is never finished in our own salvation alone. We become God's chosen instruments for transforming this world.

The saving power of Jesus must go down into society and change it at the very roots. The very first step that a man takes when he becomes a Christian, after the regeneration of his heart, is to carry those regenerating forces into the world. Wherever the Christian goes and whatever he does, the light of that redeeming power is to shine continually. It is to shine on business, on love, on pleasure, on wealth—on everything. This transforming power is the greatest need in this atomic age.

PRAYER: Our Father, we thank Thee that through Thy Son all men can be transformed. Help us to become channels for the spread of Thy transforming power. In Christ's name, Amen. THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Christ, the Savior of the world, comes to sinners with His transforming power. Elijah D. M. Shaif (West Pakistan)

Plan Retreat For Protestant Clergymen

Bishop Martin D. McNamara of Joliet announces that the national Catholic retreat movement will sponsor a two-day special retreat in September for Protestant clergymen interested in the Catholic retreat movement.

The retreat will take place at Marydale, diocesan retreat house for the Diocese of Covington, (Ky.), Sept. 12 to 14.

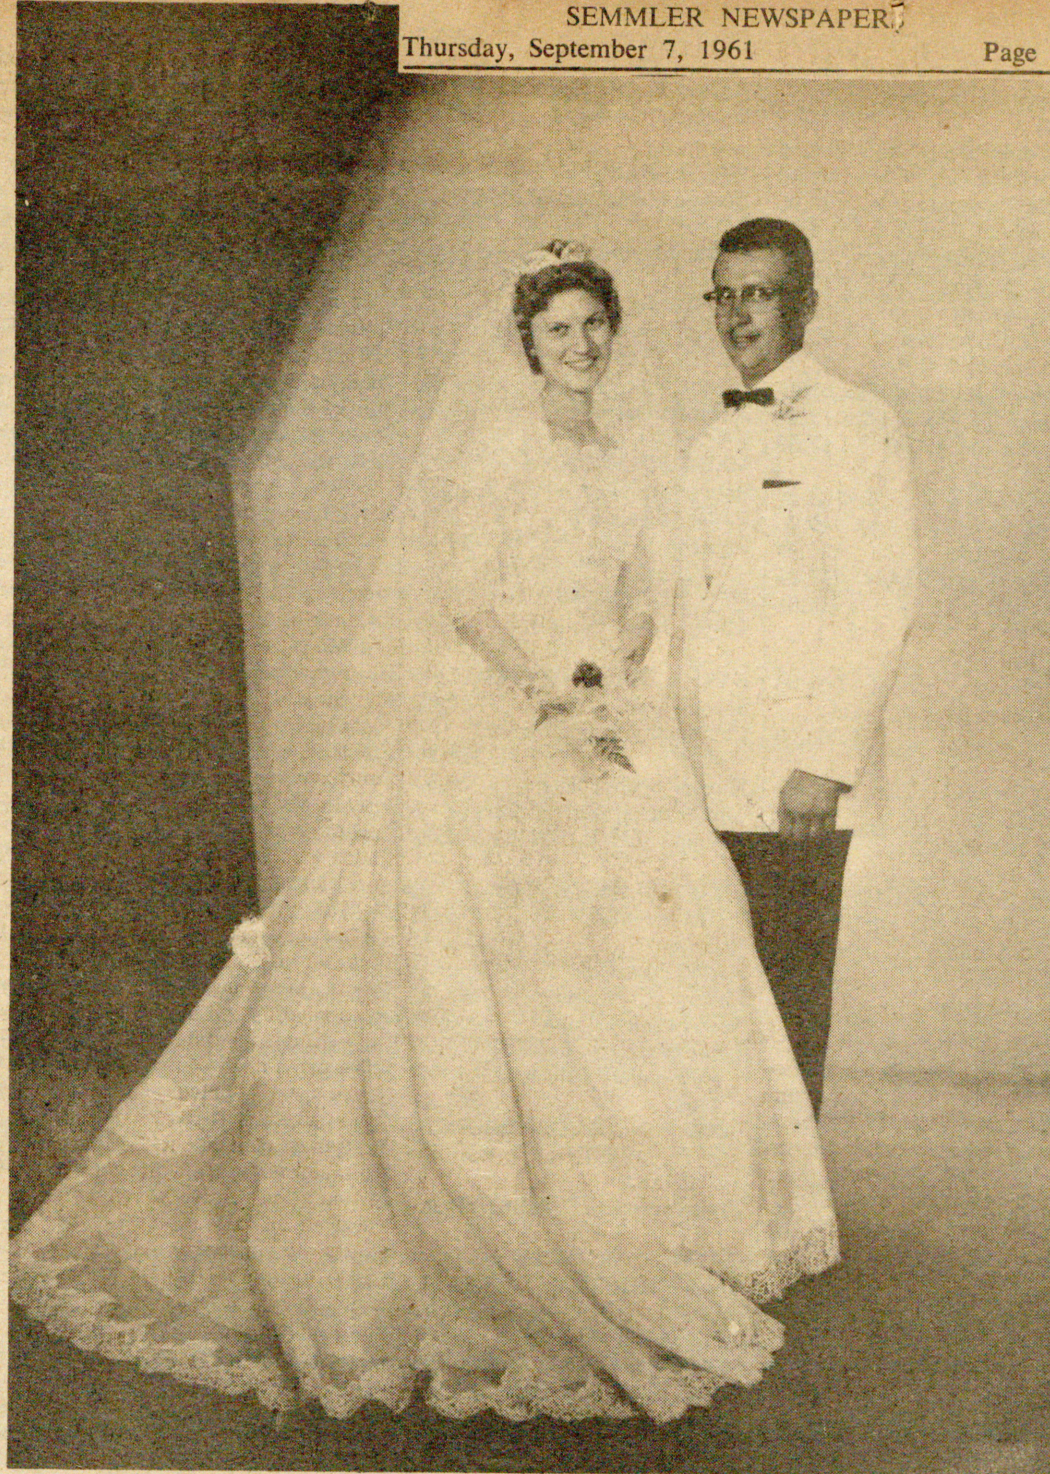

Bishop Richard H. Ackerman of the Covington diocese authorized the special retreat as a result of expressions of interest in Catholic retreats by Protestant clergy. The retreat will be given by Bishop John J. Wright of Pittsburgh. Bishop Wright is Episcopal advisor of the retreat movement in the United States.

Protestant ministers making the retreat will be guests of the Catholic Retreat Movement at Marydale, which is near the Greater Cincinnati airport.

Those interested may write the Rev. Thomas F. Middendorf, Executive Secretary, Marydale Retreat House, P.O. Box 222, Covington, Ky.

Jeanette Sievert Becomes Bride Of A Mark

Wedding bells chimed at 4 o'clock the afternoon of Saturday, Aug. 12 for the marriage of Miss Jeanette Elyn Sievert and Arthur C. Mark.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony in St. Peter's United Church of Christ, Frankfort was the Rev. Erich Bizer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sievert while Mr. Mark is the son of Mrs. Elsie Mark and the late Arthur Mark both of Frankfort.

Mrs. Erich Bizer, organist, accompanied Arthur Lambrecht, soloist, in traditional wedding selections.

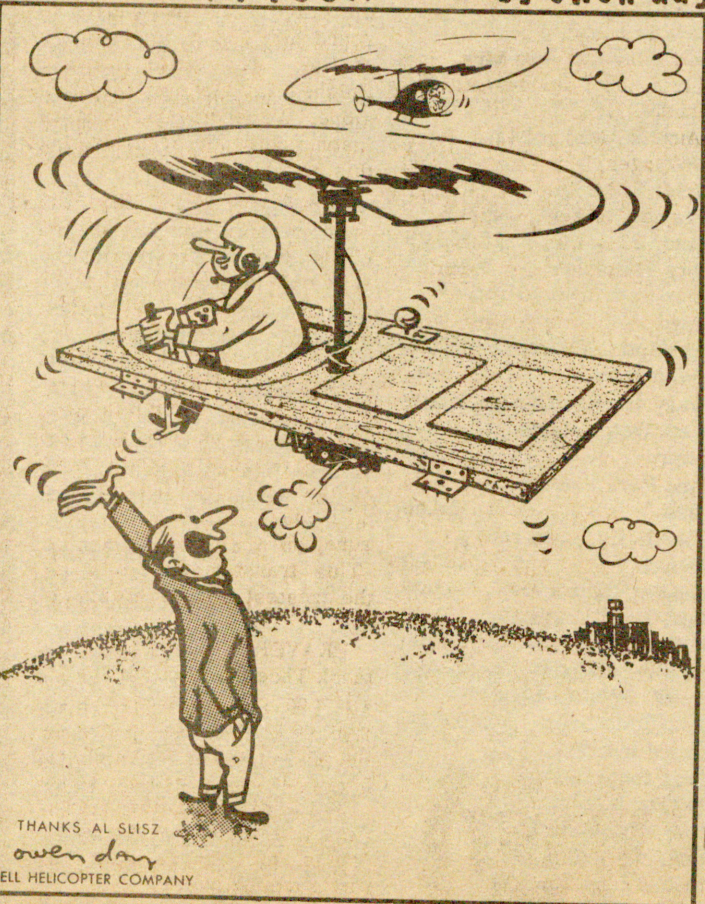

Escorted by her father to an altar festooned with palms and bouquets of white gladiolas, the bride was attired in a gown of silk organza over bouquet taffeta accented with chantilly lace. The basque bodice, accented with a square neckline and elbow length sleeves, was underscored with a self fabric silk organza bow. Bouffant floor length skirt was accented with cascading lace appliques and the hem had re-embroidered lace appliques all around cascading into a chapel train.

Coronation crown of lace etched with seed pearls and sprinkled with iridescents held her veil of silk illusion in place, and she carried a cascade of Stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Performing the duties of maid of honor was Miss Shirley Sievert, sister of the bride. Her gown of pink silk organza over taffeta was designed with a basque lace bodice accented with a scoop neckline and short sleeves. The bouffant ballerina skirt was accented in front at the waistline with a self fabric rose. She wore a matching pink petal cloche hat attached to a blusher veil and carried a white satin and lace fan centered with red garnet roses.

School Board Members Of 33C Meet In Carlson Home

The school board of 33-C held their regular monthly meeting in the Ray Carlson home Monday evening, with their wives as guests. Following the business session, they enjoyed refreshments and a social time, and presented Mr. and Mrs. Merritt J. Cagwin with a wedding gift from the group. Mr. Cagwin has been a board member ever since the building of the new school.

About 35 women and girls gathered in the Homer church dining room last Saturday evening for a post-nuptial shower in honor of Mrs. Charles Norris of Chicago. Games were played with prizes for the winners and duplicates for the bride. Light refreshments were served from a candle-light table set in yellow and white. Mrs. James Bethell presided at the silver coffee service while Miss Betty Anderson served punch from a crystal bowl. The table centerpiece was of huge yellow and white dahlias, uniquely arranged by Miss Faye Rodgers. A dainty corsage made by Mrs. Reed Burch, was presented to Mrs. Norris.

The table where the gifts were displayed was also decorated in yellow and white. Mrs. Bethell assisted her sister in opening the gifts.

The affair was arranged by Mrs. John Hollister, Miss Betty Anderson and Mrs. John White. Guests included Mrs. Norris's former co-workers in Homer church and a few special friends. Mrs. Edna Mergler, the bride's grandmother, arrived home from Kansas City that evening, just in time for the festivities.

Rev. Howard Whaley of Wheaton preached at Homer church Sunday morning because of the illness of Rev. Cox. The latter is much improved and will preach this week. He and Mrs. Cox are now at home at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Zander, 143rd St., are the parents of a daughter born Aug. 28 at Silver Cross hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kulbartz, 151st St., have a new son, born Aug. 25 at Silver Cross.

Jay Carlson entertained a few of his young friends at his home on Cedar Rd. Tuesday in celebration of his birthday.

The D and T Construction Co. of Frankfort have been issued a permit to erect a 5-room brick house and garage, 1/2 mile west of Cedar on 143rd St. at a cost of $15,000. Robert J. Kaminsky of Chicago will build a five-room brick veneer house on the south side of 139th St., west of King Rd. estimated at $1200. Kenneth Neels of Palos Park, is to build a five-room frame home on the west side of Parker Rd., south of Rte. 7, to cost $14,000.

Walter Nelson of Lockport, son-in-law of Mrs. Lola Storm, is seriously ill at his home on Seventh St.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rowley and son, John, have moved from Lockport to the C. C. Rowley home on Bruce Rd.

Carolyn Shepherd, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shepherd, Jr. is recuperating from a broken arm and hand which she sustained when she fell from her bicycle near her home on Bruce Rd. last Monday. She was taken to Silver Cross hospital for treatment and then returned home.

John W. Reiter and his brother, Burton of Manteno, left Thursday on a business trip to Mississippi.

Sherman Reiter returned here from Germany and will spend a month's furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reiter on Bruce Rd.

Willis Burnworth of Sidell is a guest in the home of his brother, Earl on Bruce Rd.

Mrs. Earl Burnworth, attended the monthly meeting of the local Marine Corps Auxiliary in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Nordstrom, E. Eighth St., Lockport, last Friday evening. Plans were made to take three car-loads of goods to Danville to the Veterans hospital for Mental patients on Sept. 11. Clothing, used electrical equipment which may be repaired by the invalids, scraps of lumber and spools, for making toys and small furniture, magazines, suspenders and neck-ties, and money for cigarettes are among the things needed. There are about 1600 persons at this hospital. Anyone having anything to donate, should contact Mrs. Burnworth.

The first baby born to an Auxiliary member is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrold Smith of Joliet. He will be crowned an Auxiliary Prince later. A nominating committee was appointed and election will be held at the next meeting on Sept. 8. Larry Burnworth showed his

1961 Cancer Fund Drive Big Success

The 1961 Crusade of the American Cancer Society-Illinois Division has reached the two million dollar mark! This is the announcement today of Charles W. Ebersold, general manager, merchandising, Illinois Bell Telephone Co., and state crusade chairman, who said the Crusade, aimed at a goal of $1,760,000, has shattered all previous records with contributions to date totaling $2,000,004.23. This, he explained is $250,370.23 more than last year's total of $1,749,634 and is the greatest amount of money ever raised in the fight against cancer in Illinois. Chairman Ebersold said, "We are gratified at the success of the Crusade, and congratulate the more than 100,000 volunteers thruout the state who helped make it possible. "We are especially grateful," he added, "for the generosity of the public whose contributions have helped us attain this record total well in advance of the official end of our Crusade, Aug. 31. At that time the public will be given final figures together with information as to the allocation by the Society of contributions. The 1961 ACS Crusade was conducted in Will county chapter under the leadership of crusade chairman, John L. Jevitz, Joliet, who reports contributions in the county totaling $24,847.14.

Republicans Put In Final Licks On Picnic Plans

Committees are at work on final preparations for the annual Will County Republican picnic and rally to be held a week from Saturday, Sept. 16, at Valley View Farm, U. S. 30 and Wolf road.

E. B. Workman, probate clerk, is general chairman. Co-chairmen are James D. Hall, president of the Young Republican organization, and John L. Jevitz, executive secretary of the Will County Republican central committee.

Those in charge expect a large attendance and U. S. Senator Everett Dirksen is to be the principal speaker. The time for his address has not been established definitely but it will be sometime between 2 and 4 o'clock. After speaking the senator will remain on the grounds to greet picnic-goers individually.

The affair is scheduled to last until 9 p.m. Starting time is 1 o'clock. Tickets are $2.50 and County School Superintendent Verne E. Crackel is chairman of the committee in charge of their sale. There were 1,500 in attendance at the picnic last year and those in charge expect it will be larger this year.

There will be food and refreshments, sports and games. Mrs. Ralph Murphy, Cherry Hill, New Lenox, is chairman of the food committee; Harold Cooper and Harold Spiess, of Mokena, are chairman and co-chairman of the grounds committee and serving on this committee is Ray Westlund, also of Mokena.

Other committee members from the area are: Don Wennlund and Roy Fitzer, New Lenox, tickets; Adam Heisner, Frankfort, co-chairman of the refreshments committee which is headed by Justice of the Peace Anthony R. Mackay, of Joliet; Albert H. Krusemark, Frankfort, speaker; Supervisor John E. Francis, New Lenox, publicity; William C. Bettenhausen, Green Garden, hospitality.

With the primaries on next April the picnic this year will serve as a sounding board for those with political aspirations. All of the precinct committeemen as well as party leaders are expected to be on hand and there will be a lot of chit chat that will be mullied over during the winter months and interpreted in many ways.

Politics thrive on rumors and reports of rumors and a party picnic is a great spawning ground for them, a political observer pointed out.

While no announcements have been made it is accepted as a foregone conclusion that Warren L. Wood, of Plainfield, veteran legislator and former house speaker, and P. Meade Baltz, freshman assemblyman, will be candidates for re-election. State Senator Lott Holman O'Neill announced several weeks ago she would be a candidate for re-election.

Will County forms the 37th state representative district by itself, but is joined with DuPage to make up the 41st senatorial district which is represented by Mrs. O'Neill.

U. S. Senator Dirksen's term expires in 1963 so he can be expected to be speaking as a candidate in the 1962 elections when he addresses the Will County Republicans.
